LISTENING
Your scaled score is close to 400. Test takers who score around 400 typically have the following strengths:
• They can infer the central idea, purpose, and basic context of short spoken exchanges across a broad range of vocabulary, even when conversational expressions are indirect or repetitive.
• They can infer the central idea, purpose, and basic context of extended spoken texts across a broad range of vocabulary. They can do this even when the information is not supported by repetition or paraphrase and when it is necessary to connect information across the text.
• They can understand details in short spoken exchanges, even when negative constructions are present, when the language is linguistically complex or when difficult vocabulary is used.
• They can understand details in extended spoken texts, even when it is necessary to connect information across the text and when the information is not supported by repetition. They can understand details when the information is paraphrased or when negative constructions are present.

READING
Your scaled score is close to 350. Test takers who score around 350 typically have the following strengths:
• They can infer the central idea and purpose of a written text, and they can make inferences about details.
• They can read for meaning. They can understand factual information, even when it is paraphrased.
• They can connect information across a small area within a text, even when the vocabulary and grammar of the text are difficult.
• They can understand individual vocabulary. They can sometimes understand difficult vocabulary in context, unusual meanings of common words, and idiomatic usage.
• They can understand rule-based grammatical structures. They can also understand difficult, complex, and uncommon grammatical constructions.

GENERAL TESTS OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Overall Proficiency reflects the number of skill areas in which you have achieved 75 percent or better.

- Mastery = a score of 75% or more in three skill areas (two for Level 1)
- Near Mastery = a score of 75% or more in two skill areas (except Level 1)
- No Mastery = a score of 75% or more in less than two skill areas

Your performance in each of the skill areas is shown in the profiles below.

PROFILE A : Skill and Task/Structure
Skill Area	Task/Structure	Score	25% 50% 75% 100%
Listening	NARRATION	43 %
	FORMAL MONOLOGUE	67 %
	NEGOTIATION	50 %
Reading and Vocabulary	PROCESS	43 %
	HIST. ACCOUNT	71 %
	NON-TECH ARTICLE	29 %
